Suspect Sought for Armed Robbery

On November 18, 2016, at approximately 11:15 p.m., Colonial Heights Police responded to a report of a robbery at the Walgreens Pharmacy located at 3201 Boulevard. Employees advised a male suspect entered the store around 11:00 p.m. and walked around the store. Shortly thereafter, he approached the pharmacy, advised he had a firearm and demanded medication. After obtaining the medication, the suspect fled the store on foot. He possibly left the area in a dark sedan that was parked nearby in the lot at Virginia Commonwealth Bank at 3209 Boulevard.

The suspect is described as a white male, in his 30's, heavysset build with facial hair. The suspect was last seen wearing a green zip-up hoodie with grey sleeves, blue jeans, brown winter knit cap with a ball on top and black and white tennis shoes.
