Colonial Heights Police and Colonial Heights Public Schools Conduct Annual Training

On October 26, 2017, the Colonial Heights Police Department and Colonial Heights Sheriff's Office, in coordination with Colonial Heights Public Schools, conducted active shooter training and a lock down drill at the Colonial Heights Middle School, and Colonial Heights High School to include its Vocational building.

This critical training allows officers to practice a coordinated response to an active shooter incident, as well as for school staff and students to practice proper school procedures in a lock down situation.
