CHPD Captain to attend the FBI National Academy

Captain William H. Anspach, III, has been selected to attend the 274th Session of the FBI National Academy. Captain Anspach is a 23-year police veteran who commands the Law Enforcement Services Bureau. "Less than one percent of all law enforcement ever has the opportunity to attend the FBI National Academy. Captain Anspach has earned the honor and privilege to be among those," said Chief Jeffrey W. Faries.

The 274th Session of the FBI National Academy will be held from October 1 to December 14, 2018, in Quantico, Virginia. A residential program, the FBI National Academy is a professional course of study for U.S. and international law enforcement leaders that serves to improve the administration of justice in police departments and agencies at home and abroad. Its objective is to raise law enforcement standards, knowledge and cooperation worldwide. Its mission is "to support, promote, and enhance the personal and professional development of law enforcement leaders by preparing them for complex, dynamic and contemporary challenges through innovative techniques, facilitating excellence in education and research, and forging partnerships throughout the world."

Captain Anspach joins Chief Jeffrey W. Faries as alumni of the program who are currently serving at the Colonial Heights Police Department.
