Ammunition found inside bathroom at Colonial Heights Middle School

On February 3rd 2011 at approximately 9:30 a.m. Colonial Heights Police responded to the Colonial Heights Middle School for a report of ammunition that was located inside the school building. A school administrator had located two bullets inside of a boy's bathroom, and notified the school resource officer.

The Colonial Heights Middle School initiated lockdown procedures and secured the school until additional law enforcement resources arrived. The Colonial Heights Police Department with the assistance of the Colonial Heights Sheriff's Office and Virginia State Police conducted a thorough search of the building and all occupants.

No weapons were located on school property. Police investigators were able to identify the juvenile responsible for bringing the bullets to school. The juvenile is facing disciplinary charges as well as possible criminal charges.
