Suspect Arrested for Malicious Wounding

On November 16th 2012 at approximately 6:14 p.m. police units were dispatched to an address in the 200 blk. of Cambridge Place in reference to a stabbing. On arrival, police officers found that there were four victims who had been assaulted. Two of the victims were transported to Southside Regional Medical Center and two were transported to the Medical College of Virginia. As of this press release all victims have been released from the hospital.

The suspect, who was identified as Bernard Starks Jr. of Hopewell Va., was apprehended a short time later near the scene. Investigation revealed that both the victims and suspect were familiar with one another. Police have charged Starks with (4) counts of Malicious Wounding and he is currently being held at the Riverside Regional Jail without bond.
