Bank Robbery Suspects Arrested

On December 24th at approximately 1:20 p.m. police units were dispatched to the EVB bank located at 3012 Blvd in reference to a robbery that had just occurred. On arrival police were informed by bank employees that the suspect a white male, short in stature, medium build, wearing a dark grey hooded sweatshirt, blue jeans, a black scarf wrapped around the lower half of his face with sunglasses entered the bank and demanded money. The suspect fled the bank with an undisclosed amount of currency. The suspect was seen getting into a silver colored Pontiac G6 that left the scene heading west on Lakeview Ave. A police officer in the area observed a vehicle fitting the description of the suspect vehicle being driven by a white female just outside the city on Lakeview Ave. As a result of this officer's observations and a thorough investigation by Colonial Heights Police detectives, two suspects were later arrested for this robbery. Police arrested Eric & Angela Shelton of Prince George County Va. for Robbery and Conspiracy to Commit Robbery. Both suspects are being held at the Riverside Regional Jail with no bond.
