Robbery Victim Charged With Making a False Police Report

Colonial Heights Police have charged a South Chesterfield man with making a false police report. Police were called to A & R Coins located at 3414 Boulevard on February 17, 2016 for an armed robbery that had been committed by a masked subject armed with a gun. After a thorough investigation police discovered that the armed robbery was made up to cover internal thefts that he had been committing. Richard E. Gonzales of South Chesterfield Va. has been charged with Filing a False Police Report and Embezzlement. He is currently being held at the Riverside Regional Jail under a $3,000 bond until his court date.
