

UPDATE March 16, 2020

- City of Colonial Heights City offices and buildings will be closed to the public on Tuesday, March 17, 2020. City staff will still be reporting to work on Tuesday, March 17, 2020. For questions or assistance with City services, please call City offices as listed on the City website, colonialheightsva.gov.
- Please be sure to practice rigorous personal hygiene to fight against spread of viruses, including frequent hand washing with antibacterial soap for at least 20 seconds. Avoid touching your face and always cover coughs and sneezes to minimize airborne pathogens, and stay home if you are sick.
- Colonial Heights Courthouse will be closed on Tuesday, March 17 and Wednesday, March 18, 2020.
- The City Manager issued a local emergency declaration today, which requires confirmation by the City Council.
- Emergency Management staff coordinated a meeting earlier today of City Departments to discuss emergency response planning. Departments are working on planning for response based on different severity levels of the COVID-19 situation.
- For Recreation and Park Facility Closures/program cancellations visit <http://www.colonialheightsva.gov/AlertCenter.aspx?AID=200>
- Colonial Heights Public Library meeting rooms are closed as of today.
- Facility Cleaning update: Additional facility cleaning is ongoing for City Buildings.