Update in Road Rage Shooting Investigation

On May 11th, 2023 at approximately 1:00pm, Colonial Heights Police responded to the 600 Block of the Boulevard for the report of an individual who had been shot.

Officers located a 25-year-old female inside of a vehicle with an apparent gunshot wound to her leg. The victim reported that prior to the shooting, she had been involved in a "road rage" incident with at that time unknown individuals inside of another vehicle, which occurred on Dupuy Avenue near the campus of Virginia State University. The victim was transported to an area hospital.

On May 26th, 2023 Colonial Heights Detectives arrested Destiny Richardson, 23 years old, a resident of Richmond, Virginia, as well as Kenndezz Ampy, 18 years old, a resident of Hopewell, Virginia for this crime.   Richardson was charged with Malicious Wounding, Felony Accessory after the Fact, Shooting in the Commission of a Felony, Driving on a Suspended Operator's License, & Reckless Driving. She was held at Riverside Regional Jail with No Bond. Ampy was charged with Felony Shooting from a Vehicle, Malicious Wounding and Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony. He was held at Riverside Regional Jail with No Bond.
