On July 4, 2023, at approximately 8:00 pm, while working the July fourth fireworks display, Colonial Heights Police were approached by a citizen about a subject who had discharged a firearm. Units responded to the 600 block of Southpark Boulevard and contacted the witness.

When officers arrived on scene they observed approximately six shell casings in the parking lot of the business. Witnesses advised the male suspect, identified as 59-year-old Garryl L. Crawley of Charles City County, pulled out a handgun and began shooting approximately six rounds into the air. Mr. Crawley was located and found to be intoxicated. Mr. Crawley was taken into custody without incident and the hand gun was recovered. There were no reported injuries associated with this incident.

Mr. Crawley has been charged with three counts of Felony child endangerment, one count of misdemeanor reckless handling of a firearm, misdemeanor discharging a firearm in a public place and drunk in public. He is currently being held without bond at Riverside Regional Jail. Additional charges may be pending upon consultation with the Colonial Heights Commonwealth Attorney's Office.
