Suspect Apprehended in Theft from Autos and Break-ins

Petersburg, Virginia: The Petersburg Bureau of Police and the Colonial Heights Police Department have been collaborating to investigate a series of burglaries and thefts occurring in both jurisdictions. Through their joint efforts, a suspect was identified in connection with break-ins at several churches, residences, and thefts from vehicles. This suspect has now been taken into custody.

On May 24, 2025, at approximately 4:30 a.m., the Colonial Heights Police Department received a call regarding multiple vehicles being broken into in the 700 block of Hamilton Avenue.

Upon arrival, officers canvassed the area and spotted a male suspect who matched the description provided by one of the victims. When officers approached, the suspect fled on foot. After a brief foot chase, officers apprehended the suspect near the intersection of Colonial Avenue and East Westover Avenue. During the arrest, they discovered a bag containing burglary tools, facemasks, and a firearm.

The suspect has been identified as Robert Allen Branch, age 50, a resident of South Chesterfield. Branch has been charged with several offenses, including Larceny of a Firearm, Possession of Burglarious Tools, Petit Larceny, Carrying a Concealed Weapon, Obstruction of Justice,

Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon, and Providing False Identification to Law Enforcement.

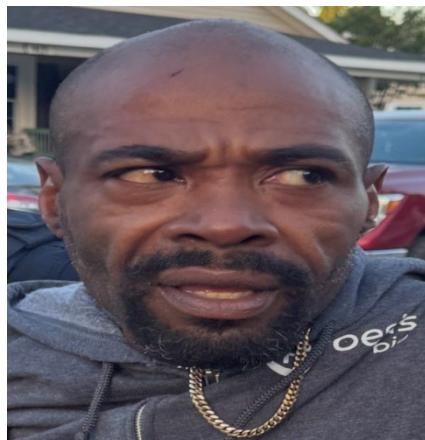

Branch has been identified as a suspect in a burglary that occurred on May 23, 2025, in the 200 block of Danville Avenue. He faces additional charges for Breaking and Entering, Grand Larceny, Wearing a Mask, and Vandalism. Branch was transported to Riverside Regional Jail, where he is being held without bond.

In Petersburg, Branch has been charged with multiple break-ins of churches as well as a residential burglary and remains incarcerated on those charges as well.

Detectives from Colonial Heights are collaborating with Petersburg detectives to investigate any additional crimes that may be linked to Branch.
