Suspect Arrested in String of Burglaries and Thefts from Vehicles

On July 12th, 2015 Colonial Heights Police arrested Stephen L Adams Jr for a string of residential burglaries and thefts from vehicles which occurred in Colonial Heights. Between July 7th and July 10th 2015, there were five residential burglaries and six thefts from vehicles reported in Colonial Heights. Over ten thousand dollars in property was stolen including several firearms. Forensic evidence left at one of the crime scenes led investigators to identify the suspect as Stephen L Adams Jr, 23 years of age, a resident of Blackstone, VA. Adams was arrested and has been charged with Burglary, Grand Larceny, and Grand Larceny with the intent to sell; he was transported to Riverside Regional Jail where he is currently being held without bond. Additional charges are pending and will be placed upon the completion of the investigation.
