Craig R. Skalak

Craig Skalak was elected to the City Council in November 2024. Craig worked for the city's Recreation and Parks Department from 1989 until his retirement in August 2024. He served his initial 20 years as Recreation Superintendent and was primarily responsible for administering youth and adult athletic programs. Mr. Skalak was promoted to Director in 2010. He led the department's seven divisions (Recreation, Parks, Community Center, Building Maintenance, Horticulture, Youth & Human Services, and Violet Bank Museum) until retirement.

Craig has an established volunteer record in the community: current Colonial Heights Kiwanis member and board member (responsible for the Terrific Kids program at CHPS elementary schools and the annual City Cleanup), previous Colonial Heights Food Pantry board member, former Old Brick House Foundation board member, current Colonial Heights Beautification Committee member, former Senior Citizens Advisory Committee member, and longtime youth athletics coach.
